

Family Worship at Home!

Here are some activities you could do at home. Start with the story and then do as many or as few as you like.

Bible passage

Today we're thinking about Angels in Revelation, and their role in praising God. There are whole chunks of Revelation you might want to read, but below are some words that the Angels praise God with from Revelation 5v11-13

As I looked, I heard the voices of a lot of angels around the throne and the voices of the living creatures and of the elders. There were millions and millions of them, and they were saying in a loud voice,

"The Lamb who was killed
is worthy to receive power,
riches, wisdom, strength,
honour, glory, and praise."

Then I heard all beings in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and in the sea offer praise. Together, all of them were saying,

"Praise, honour, glory, and strength forever and ever to the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb!"

Discussion

- What do you think Angels look like?
- What do you think they do? Think back over the last few weeks.
- Today's angels, praise God. How do we praise God?
- Is praising God, just about singing
- Do the words the Angels use, look familiar? Where have you heard them before?

A Prayer

Father God, you are amazing and awesome, help us to praise you with all we have, our words and actions, our hearts and our minds. Amen

How to make a blow-out angel.

You will need:
two copies of the angel template,
wide drinking straws, narrow curling gold ribbon, adhesive tape, crayons, glitter, adhesive, scissors.

1 Decorate an angel.

2 Curl a 20cm length of ribbon tightly by pulling the dull side against closed scissors blades.

4 Tape the straw on the back of the decorated angel with the ribbon lined up with the trumpet.

3 Tape the ribbon to one end of a straw.

5 Fix the other angel shape on the back, taking care not to squash the straw.

6 Blow through the straw to stretch the ribbon out.
